How do I access and use Virtual Computer Lab (VLab)?

Virtual Computer Lab (vlab.usask.ca) enables students and faculty to access applications from their personal laptop, computer or portable device (e.g. iPad) from home or on campus. This means that you don't always have to go to a computer lab to use some applications.

Login to continue reading

Related articles

- Virtual Computer Lab (Vlab)
- How do I configure a Virtual Private Network (VPN) connection on a managed Windows computer?
- Virtual Private Network (VPN)
- Scientific Research Software
- STATA
- How do I configure a Virtual Private Network (VPN) connection on a Mac computer?
- How to use LabArchives?
- How do I access DATASTORE on a Windows computer through WebDav?
- How do I add a network printer on a Mac computer?
- What software is available for students to install on personal computers?