

How do I find out about research funding opportunities?

The University's primary method of communication to researchers is through listservs. Listservs send notifications about funding opportunities, agency and internal deadlines, U of S hosted conference and workshops.

Login to continue reading

Related Articles

- How can I secure Matching Funds from the Office of the Vice-President Research?
- Who is my Research Facilitator?
- Who approves my research application and awarded research funding?
- What is a Continuous Research Fund \(CRF\)?
- What is Institutional Costs of Research \(ICR\)?
- What is a research agreement?
- When should I create a new research funding application in UnivRS?
- Do I still need to submit a research funding application in UnivRS if I am not the lead Principal Investigator?
- How do I extend my research project?
- What happens when my already-established research project is awarded additional funding?

Provide feedback