

ECUR 164 Home

Welcome to our ECUR 164 Wiki for the Useful Things to Know assignment!

In order to build your wiki page, you will need to:

1. Make sure you are logged in. If you see "Login" in the top right corner of the screen, then you need to click there to login with your NSID and password.
2. Then you can click the blue Create button.
3. Choose Blank Page.
4. Name your page using the question you are answering. E.g., "LS: When, where, and why is blood red?"
 - a. LS is short for Life Sciences
 - b. Use LS, ESS, CH, PH to shorten the name of these branches of science
5. Enter your page content in the textbox area.
6. Click the blue Save button when you are ready to step away. You MUST save!
