12:00 noon: Buffet lunch with Dr. Teppo Järvinen

Bio of Dr. Teppo Järvinen

Dr. Teppo Järvinen received his MD (1996) and PhD (1998) from the University of Tampere, Finland, where he practiced clinical medicine and conducted orthopaedic research with an overall aim to optimize fragility fracture prevention. His bone expertise is recognized internationally as evidenced by nomination to the editorial board of the leading journal in the field: Journal of Bone and Mineral Research. Dr. Järvinen has published over 70 peer-reviewed articles related to skeletal biology and health. His proficiency includes both clinical studies and experimental models investigating skeletal adaptation to loading, estrogen, and renal osteodystrophy. He is currently finalizing an Orthopaedic Fellowship at the UBC Department of Orthopaedics, Vancouver, BC.
