

How do I request a new research fund?

Please contact for new grants Research Acceleration and Strategic Initiatives (RASI) for grants or Research Excellence and Innovation (REI) for contracts if you require a new research financial fund (CFOAPAL) for a newly awarded grant (internal or external) or a pending research contract.

Login to continue reading

Related Articles

- Who is eligible to hold and administer research funds at the university?
- I am leaving the university how can I bring my research funding with me?
- How can I sub-contract or transfer research funding between researchers or institutions?
- Who approves my research application and awarded research funding?
- What happens when my already-established research project is awarded additional funding?
- I have relocated to the university how can I transfer my funded research projects here?
- How do I extend my research project?
- How will my leave from the university affect my eligibility to keep my research funding?
- How will a change to my appointment or status affect my eligibility to hold my research funding?
- What is a Continuous Research Fund \(CRF\)?

Provide feedback