

Do I need to submit research Letters of Intent funding applications in UnivRS?

Often, external agencies require a Letter of Intent (LOI) before a full application is submitted.

Login to continue reading

Details

Related Articles

- When should I create a new research funding application in UnivRS?
- Do I still need to submit a research funding application in UnivRS if I am not the lead Principal Investigator?
- What is Institutional Costs of Research \(ICR\)?
- How do I find out about research funding opportunities?
- What are the university's internal deadlines for external research funding applications?
- How can I secure Matching Funds from the Office of the Vice-President Research?
- I need institutional signature on my research application or research contract agreement. Who is the University Official Authorized Representative?
- What research facilitation support is available?
- Letters of Support for grant applications
- Can I create a research funding application in UnivRS on behalf of someone else?

Provide feedback