

I have relocated to the university how can I transfer my funded research projects here?

If you have relocated to the University from another Institution, there are a number of items that are required before arrangements can be made to transfer your research funding to the USask. Please contact Research Acceleration and Strategic Initiatives (RASI) for held grants and Research Excellence and Innovation (REI) for held contracts to discuss possible options with the assigned Specialist.

Login to continue reading

Related Articles

- How will my leave from the university affect my eligibility to keep my research funding?
- How will a change to my appointment or status affect my eligibility to hold my research funding?
- I am leaving the university how can I bring my research funding with me?
- What happens when my already-established research project is awarded additional funding?
- How do I extend my research project?
- What are my responsibilities as a Principal Investigator?
- Who approves my research application and awarded research funding?
- What is a research agreement?
- How can I sub-contract or transfer research funding between researchers or institutions?
- What is the difference between a student stipend and salary?

Provide feedback