Working Remotely Guidelines

Remote work involves working at an alternate location other than on the USask campus or other designated "work site", usually working from home. Use this guide to learn how to connect to a work computer, attend online meetings, use USask collaboration tools, access files, phones and email and more.

Login to continue reading

Related articles

- How do I configure remote desktop to a Windows computer from a Mac?
- What can I do to improve my web conference connection while working remotely?
- Why can't I use my speakers, microphone or camera when connected to an on-campus computer via Remote Desktop?
- Remote Desktop Information and Instructions
- How do I access files from an off-campus Windows computer?
- Getting Started with USask Technology
- What is the Finance and Resources Service Catalogue?
- Return to Campus: IT Resources
- Student Laptop Loaner Program - IT Support Desk (Murray Library)
- How do I use multiple monitors when working remotely using Remote Desktop?

Provide feedback