The University Research System (UnivRS) is a web-based service that allows users to:

- Explore funding opportunities to support your research, scholarly and artistic work;
- Collaborate with colleagues at the University of Saskatchewan;
- Submit and track research projects from concept to completion;
- Share research project successes;
- Create reports, such as the Standardized Curriculum Vitae (C.V.);
- and much more!

Need technical assistance? Contact UnivRS Support