Functional Network Service ID (NSID)

Functional USask Network Services ID (NSID) is often used by departments for group/departmental calendars and email accounts. The accounts can be created and permissions granted to people's NSID's for accessibility.

Login to continue reading

Related articles

- How do I open a secondary Email Account in Outlook Mac?
- How do I remove a secondary mailbox in Outlook?
- Network Services ID (NSID) - Services Eligibility
- How do I share my student information as well as view information shared with me?
- Unable to use Automatic Replies (Out of Office) in Outlook
- How do I link my ORCID iD to my NSID?
- How do I send an email from a shared mailbox/functional account in Outlook?
- How do I open a secondary email account in Outlook Web Access?
- Why can't I find an NSID in SharePoint?
- How long do people keep their access to One45?